CAUSE NO. _____

STANTON LLP	§	IN DISTRICT COURT OF
Plaintiff,	§
v.	§	DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS
ARGONAUT INSURNACE	§
COMPANY	§
	§	101st
Defendant.	§	_____ JUDICIAL DISTRICT

PLAINTIFF'S ORIGINAL PETITION

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff Stanton LLP ("Stanton" or "Plaintiff") complains of Defendant Argonaut Insurance Company ("Argonaut," "Defendant," or the "Insurer") for the following reasons:

I. DISCOVERY LEVEL

1. Discovery will be conducted under Level 3 of Rule 190 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

II. THE PARTIES

2. Stanton is a domestic limited liability partnership with its principal place of business in Dallas County, Texas.

3. Argonaut's principal place of business is in San Antonio, Texas and is therefore considered a citizen of this State. It may be served with process by serving its registered agent as follows: Corporation Service Company, 211 E. 7th St., Ste. 620, Austin, TX 78701.

III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE AND RULE 47 STATEMENT

4. This Court has jurisdiction of this dispute because the amount in controversy exceeds its minimum jurisdictional limits.

5. Among other reasons, venue is proper in Dallas County, Texas pursuant, to Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code § 15.002 because all or a part of the causes of action accrued here.

6. Pursuant to Rule 47 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff seeks monetary relief over $250,000 but not more than $1,000,000.00 currently; however, its damages continue to accrue daily.

IV. BACKGROUND

A. Stanton's Reputation for Excellence and its Unwavering Commitment to its Clients—

7. Stanton is one of the preeminent corporate litigation law firms in the State of Texas. Stanton focuses on its clients' businesses and crafts litigation strategies in alignment with its clients' corporate values and objectives. Stanton's agility, creativity, and velocity have earned it a reputation for rescuing difficult cases and delivering results. Stanton's bedrock, core values include its commitment to fulfilling its fiduciary duties to its clients, including preserving the attorney-client privilege and protecting its clients' confidential information, without regard to any hardship such an unwavering commitment may cause the firm.

B. The Argonaut Insurance Policy, the Improper Demand, and Stanton's Notice of a Potential Claim—

8. In October 2019, glendonTodd Capital, LLC ("GTC") improperly demanded that Stanton violate its confidentiality obligations to its clients or face a lawsuit (the "Potential Claim"). Consistent with its values, Stanton put its clients' interests first and rejected GTC's demand.

9. Effective March 18, 2019 through March 18, 2020, Argonaut had agreed to provide Stanton with professional liability coverage in accordance with the terms of Policy No. 121 LPL 0000414-01 (the "Policy"). According to the terms of the Policy, Stanton provided written notice of the Potential Claim to Argonaut. Argonaut acknowledged receipt of the notice on October 21, 2019.

C. GTC's Lawsuit and Stanton's Request for a Defense—

10. On April 13, 2020, the Potential Claim became a claim under the Policy when GTC filed a lawsuit against Stanton in the 160th Judicial District Court of Dallas County (the "Lawsuit"). Stanton timely and properly notified Argonaut of the Lawsuit, provided it with a copy of the petition, and requested a defense (the "Insurance Claim"). According to the terms of the Policy and applicable law, among other duties, Argonaut owed Stanton the duty to defend it in the Lawsuit.

11. Argonaut represented to Stanton that it was commencing an appropriate investigation but did not timely appoint counsel to defend Stanton prior to the date by which Stanton was required to file an answer in the Lawsuit. Accordingly, Stanton had no alternative other than to retain counsel itself to defend it. Stanton prudently chose Lynn Pinker, which clearly was qualified and competent defense counsel, perfectly suitable to defend the Lawsuit.

D. Argonaut's Unlawful Adjustment of the Insurance Claim—

12. From April 2020 through October 2020, Argonaut communicated with Stanton on numerous occasions, claiming that it was continuing to conduct an appropriate investigation under the Policy and applicable law. Stanton trusted that Argonaut would eventually complete its investigation and provide a defense as required by the Policy. Argonaut was aware that Lynn Pinker was defending Stanton in the Lawsuit and never objected to or questioned the representation. During this time, Stanton incurred substantial out-of-pocket defense costs in the Lawsuit that Argonaut should have been paying.

13. On October 15, 2020 Stanton wrote to Argonaut's adjuster, asking Argonaut to state unequivocally whether it would provide a defense. Stanton also asked Argonaut to explain why, despite having been promptly provided all requested information by Stanton, Argonaut had nonetheless refused to either accept or reject coverage. Stanton further advised Argonaut that, because of Argonaut's refusal to assume the defense, it already had been forced to incur defense costs exceeding $125,000.00 in the Lawsuit.

14. Finally, on December 16, 2020, Argonaut provided correspondence to Stanton, which it entitled "Reservation of Rights" (the "ROR"). In the ROR, Argonaut agreed to provide Stanton a defense in the Lawsuit and consented to Lynn Pinker serving as its defense counsel. Argonaut represented that it would pay Lynn Pinker's invoices going forward, purportedly at a reduced rate. Further, Argonaut represented that it was reviewing Lynn Pinker's invoices and would notify Stanton soon how much it would pay for the Defense Costs Stanton had incurred to date. Both statements were material misrepresentations: Argonaut never paid any of Lynn Pinker's going forward defense costs—at a reduced rate or otherwise—or notified Stanton as to the amount of the pre-December 16, 2020 Defense Costs it would reimburse Stanton.

V. CAUSES OF ACTION

COUNT I BREACH OF CONTRACT BY ARGONAUT

15. Argonaut failed to defend Stanton in the Lawsuit. Argonaut's failure to do so constitutes a breach contract, resulting in damages to Stanton for which it now sues.

16. All conditions precedent to assert this claim have been performed by Stanton, have occurred, or have been excused.

COUNT II THE INSURER'S VIOLATIONS OF TEX. INS. CODE CHAPTER 541

17. By engaging in the conduct described above, the Insurer not only has breached its contractual obligations to Stanton, but has violated § 541.060 of the Texas Insurance Code as follows:

- a. misrepresenting to a claimant a material fact or policy provision relating to coverage at issue;

- b. failing to attempt in good faith to effectuate a prompt, fair, and equitable settlement of a claim with respect to which the insurer's liability has become reasonably clear; and
- c. refusing to pay a claim without conducting a reasonable investigation with respect to the claim.

18. The Insurer committed this wrongful conduct knowingly. Plaintiff has fulfilled all conditions precedent to its recovery under this cause of action and has sustained actual damages resulting from this conduct for which it now sues.

19. By engaging in the conduct described above, the Insurer also violated § 541.061 of the Texas Insurance Code as follows:

- a. making an untrue statement of material fact;
- b. failing to state a material fact necessary to make other statements made not misleading, considering the circumstances under which the statements were made;
- c. making a statement in a manner that would mislead a reasonably prudent person to a false conclusion of a material fact; and
- d. making a material misstatement of law.

20. The Insurer committed this wrongful conduct knowingly. Plaintiff has fulfilled all conditions precedent to its recovery under this cause of action and has sustained actual damages resulting from this conduct for which it now sues.

COUNT III
THE INSURER'S VIOLATIONS OF TEX. INS. CODE CHAPTER 542

21. The Insurer's conduct also violated § 542.003 of the Texas Insurance Code as follows: a) knowingly misrepresenting to a claimant pertinent facts or policy provisions relating to coverage at issue; b) not attempting in good faith to effect a prompt, fair, and equitable settlement of a claim submitted in which liability has become reasonably clear; and c) compelling a policyholder to institute a suit to recover an amount due under a policy by offering substantially less than the amount ultimately recovered in a suit brought by the policyholder.

22. The Insurer committed this wrongful conduct knowingly. Plaintiff has fulfilled all conditions precedent to its recovery under this cause of action and has sustained actual damages resulting from this conduct for which it now sues.

23. Additionally, the Insurer's delay and conduct associated with handling the Insurance Claim violated the Section 542.058 of the Texas Insurance Code as follows:

Delay[ing] payment of the claim for a period exceeding the period specified by other applicable statutes or, if other statutes do not specify a period, for more than 60 days after receiving all items, statements, and forms reasonably requested and required under Section 542.055.

COUNT IV
PLAINTIFF'S INVOCATION OF ITS RIGHTS UNDER
TEX. INS. CODE §§ 541.152, 542.058, AND 542.060

24. Pursuant to Texas law, and for the reasons described in this petition, Plaintiff seeks to recover a) the amount of actual damages, plus court costs and reasonable and necessary attorney's fees; b) additional damages in an amount three times the amount of actual damages, all as provided in § 541.152 of the Texas Insurance Code; and c) any other relief the court deems proper.

25. Additionally, Plaintiff invokes its rights under § 542.058 of the Texas Insurance Code to recover the penalties set forth in § 542.060, including 18% interest and attorneys' fees.

26. The Insurer committed this wrongful conduct knowingly. Plaintiff has fulfilled all conditions precedent to its recovery under this cause of action and has sustained actual damages resulting from this conduct for which it now sues.

COUNT V
TEXAS DECEPTIVE TRADE PRACTICES ACT VIOLATIONS

27. For the reasons set forth above, the Insurer has violated § 17.46(b)(12) of the Texas Business & Commerce Code and under § 17.50(a)(4) of the Texas Business & Commerce Code because their conduct violated Chapters 541 and 542 of the Texas Insurance Code, as outlined above. Additionally, the Insurer's unlawful acts were an unconscionable action or course of action under § 17.50(a)(3) of the Texas Business & Commerce Code because it attempted to take advantage of Stanton's lack of insurance coverage knowledge, ability, experience, and/or capacity with respect to interpreting the Policy and determining Stanton's rights under it to a grossly unfair degree. The resulting unfairness to Stanton glaringly is noticeable, flagrant, complete, and unmitigated.

28. The Insurer's wrongful conduct was intentional, knowing, and a producing cause of damages to Plaintiff, which is entitled, therefore, to all the relief contained within the DTPA, including, but not limited to, economic damages, attorneys' fees, interest, costs, and treble damages, for which it now sues.

29. Plaintiff has fulfilled all conditions precedent to its recovery under this cause of action and has sustained actual damages resulting from this conduct for which it now sues.

COUNT VI
BREACH OF DUTY OF GOOD FAITH AND FAIR DEALING BY THE INSURER

30. The Insurer owed Plaintiff a duty of good faith and fair dealing, which required it to (1) perform its duties and obligations under the Policy in a reasonable and timely manner, and (2) properly handle the Insurance Claim. The Insurer's actions described above were wanton, reckless, malicious and/or intentional in disregard to Plaintiff's rights under the Policy. Additionally, the Insurer's conduct described herein was malicious, fraudulent, or grossly negligent. As a result, Plaintiff has suffered economic damages in an amount to be determined by the trier of fact. Plaintiff has fulfilled all conditions precedent to its recovery under this cause of action and has sustained actual damages resulting from this conduct for which it now sues.

COUNT VII
ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

31. Pursuant to applicable law, including but not limited to Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code § 38.001, the Insurance Code and the DTPA, Plaintiff hereby sues the Insurer for costs of court, and reasonable and necessary attorneys' fees. Plaintiff has fulfilled all conditions precedent to recovery of its fees and costs, including but not limited to presentment.

COUNT VIII
ADDITIONAL AND EXEMPLARY DAMAGES

32. Further, Plaintiff seeks exemplary damages against the Insurer because its wrongful conduct was undertaken with a state of mind that justifies the imposition of exemplary damages. Plaintiff is entitled to additional damages under the Insurance Code and DTPA, as well, and hereby sues for such damages.

VI. JURY DEMAND

33. As is its right under the constitutions and laws of the United States of America and this State, Plaintiff hereby respectfully requests a trial by jury.

WHEREFORE, Stanton respectfully requests that it have judgment against Defendant, consistent with its allegations in this Petition, and that it recovers its costs, attorneys' fees, pre- and post-judgment interest, special damages, penalties and/or exemplary damages, and such other and further relief at law or in equity to which it may be entitled.
